Our Charity Project- ‘Prayas’

We at S.M.Patel Institute of Commerce have initiated “PRAYAS”...A charity mission. The noble cause was carried out for three days viz 26th, 27th and 28th December 2011. The basic objective behind PRAYAS was to imbibe sense of social responsibility among our students. On 26th Dec our Principal Dr.Ashwin Purohit along with coordinators Prof Krupa Bhatt , Prof Nasheman Bandoowala and 200 students visited Ambawadi Munciple School no.26. We gifted three blackboards to the school and distributed fruits,socks,biscuits,cakes,wafers and stationery to 320 students of the school. College students sang a prayer and arranged a quiz for the school kids.Our team was in the school from 12.15pm to 3.00 pm.

On 27th Dec 2011, we visited Children’s Cancer Ward, Civil hospital at 12.30pm. Our Principal personally met all the suffering patients and gifted toys,socks, wafer to 50 patients of the ward and OPD. Many faculties and students joined which showcases the concern of our staff and students.

On 28th Dec 2011, we visited “Jeevan Sandhiya”- A Old Age home between 9.00am and 1.30pm which was very wonderful experience for all of us. Our students were counselled by the trustee-Mr Farsubhai . He narrated his experience which was very touching for all of us. Our Principal, faculties and 120 students met old people there and exchanged notes. We distributed a kit consisting of Vicks balm, Vaseline, hair oil, socks, napkin and fruits to 200 inhabitants of the Jeevan sandhiya.

37 Activities of the Guidance and Counseling unit

The institute runs its own Placement and Career Guidance Cell. This cell provides guidance and counselling to students on the issues raised by students. Usually, students seek guidance for pursuing further education and different professional courses. The institute every year organizes career guidance seminar wherein experts from various fields are invited to acquaint students with latest career options. The institute has formed star batch for bright students and remedial batch for weak students to enhance their academic performance.

To inspire the students and to make an effort to promote interdisciplinary exchange of ideas various seminars/ workshops/guest lectures were kept in the college. Expert guest faculties were invited to deliver lectures to students and interact.

No	Year	Conducted by	Theme of the programme
1	January 2011	LONDON SAM	Guiding students to pursue Global Accounting courses like ACCA, CIMA etc.

6	September 2012	TIME Institute	Workshop on VEDIC Maths was organised for learning the tricks of speedy calculations
7	December 2012	United World Institute	Guiding students to pursue various professional courses after graduation

38. Placement services provided to students

Students are informed about the job opportunities available in the market. The institute makes arrangement for the campus recruitment process wherein different companies are invited for placement.

39. Development programmes for non-teaching staff

Gujarat Law Society organizes special workshop for improving the administrative and computer skills of non-teaching staff. Moreover, some of Non-teaching staff members usually accompany the group of students and faculty members for educational visits or cultural visit organized by the college so that they get exposure to new places, people and skills. Apart from this, regular training is given to them by professionals in the matter of compliances like payment of income tax, accounting, payment of professional tax, etc.

40 Good practices of the institution

The following are some of the healthy practices of the institute

- Students are taught various environment related topics in General English syllabus and in Foundation Course.
- We celebrate world environment day, ozone day, Cycle Day, Tree Plantation etc., for environment consciousness. We organize Poster-Making and Painting competition representing environmental issues to increase the awareness.
- Under CWDC, we regularly organize trips for students to places full of natural environment and try to give the first hand experience of living amidst nature and develop a bond with nature.
- Institute website is updated on regular basis.

- CCTV monitoring system is installed in library halls, staff room, corridors and in the campus so that proper supervision and check can be kept on campus activities.
- Provision of mass messages to the students of all semester to regularly update them with college exams, form filling dates and other important college activities.
- ICT- Computer lab provided to the students for learning courses like tally and also performs research based activities.
- STAR BATCHES consisting of rank holders in the university and group of students with good percentages are formed for each semester in which students are guided how to sustain their ranking at the university examinations. Students are given special counseling and coaching under this program. One ranker from each semester is assigned to each faculty for enhancing their academic performance.
- Remedial lectures are conducted for the weak students by appointing class counselor for each semester and they are assigned the responsibility of providing them necessary coaching.
- College Publications-
- (1)PRISM college magazine- a magazine for the students of the students and by the students -which provide them with the platform of exhibiting their creative talents and skill development.
- (2) GLS Voice- monthly news letter by the institute and the management reflecting the activities of the institute and other colleges of the campus.
- The noteworthy encouragement provided by SMPIC is that it not only provides huge platform to the students to exhibit their talents in various co curricular activities of state and national level but when the team of college wins an award or cash prize the same amount of prize is added by the college and given to the winning participants of the college.
- In JOSH event every year the winners were awarded with a cash prize of 1.5 lakhs
- The students who participate in various intercollegiate or state or national level competitions are refunded the registration fees of the same. The participation of the student in various events is completely funded by the institute.
